

AGE:

Age is not a problem for you ... you just add another wrinkle to your prune face.

You can tell how old she is by counting the red tree rings around her eyes.

You're as wrinkled as a bed sheet.

BIRTHDAYS

Carbon dating can't even get a lock on her age.

BREATH

After talking to her, you feel like a flea-infested camel just coughed in your face.

COMEDIANS

You're funny... but so is stepping in cow manure.

The dead are funnier than you are.

You really make me laugh... but you should, you're a worm.

CRAZY

He's crazier than two horses trying to run up a tree.

DANCERS

She moves like a worm on a hook.

He likes to dance... with plastic forks.

DATES

Two words describe your date... queer robot!

DUMBBELLS

I called you last night... a babbling idiot.

EXPERTS

He spent 10 years studying magic markers.

The only statistic he doesn't have is how many people he bores to death.

EYES

Usually, you find eyes like that popping up from behind a rock.

She has the eyes of a ghost.

If you look into her eyes you'll see a pigeon.

The last time I saw eyes like that they were running into the woods.

Her eyes are something...like ping-pong balls.

FACES

She's got a face like a canteen.

The only thing that'll help her face is the night.

I remember your face... it made me sick last time too.

HAIR

Your hair looks like a burning cactus!

I've seen better looking hair on flies.

I love your hairdo... on goats.

ILLNESS

Maybe two cough drops stuffed up your nose would stop that banana from leaking.

IQ

Bacon is smarter than you are.

He went to Harvard to study... yeah, the history of cotton candy.

She was first in her class... to get drunk, VD, and lice.

KINDNESS

You're as helpful as a cattle prod is to a cow.

He's kind... kind of stupid.

She's an angel in disguise... but right now she's a hooker.

She's always there when you need her... at the insane asylum.

KISSING

Kissing him is like locking lips with a hot branding iron.

The only way to kiss her is with a fly swatter.

She kisses like a rubber stamp.

LEGS

Her legs are so skinny they broke while she was sun bathing.

Last time I saw legs like that they were running into the woods.

Where did you get those legs... from a circus fat lady?

Don't let my hungry dog see those boney legs.

With legs like that all you need is a cage and a perch.

LIPS AND LIPSTICK

Her lips are big and red...like hemorrhoids.

You can be assured that when his lips are closed all the bugs in the room are gone.

LOVE

She loves him the way I love my lawn mower.

A dishrag can give more love than he can.

She always talks about her first love... the mirror.

MOTHERS

Mom, I'm scared, I think I look like you!

NECKS

She got that long neck from peeking around corners.

He broke his neck looking at a Picasso painting.

NUDISTS

Maybe my dog would stop vomiting if you put your clothes on.

SALESMEN

If your product doesn't do what you say it does, I'll crack open your ribcage.

Could you come back tomorrow ... I'll have a knife then.

SKIN

When you look at his pores it reminds you of the three holes in a bowling ball.

You have such beautiful skin ... too bad it's all piled up on your neck.
